INDIA-US COOPERATION ON ENERGY AND CLIMATE CHANGE: MULTILATERAL AND BILATERAL OPPORTUNITIES

Tuesday, February 14, 2012

3:00 – 4:30 PM

Reception to Follow

The Aspen Institute

One Dupont Circle, NW, Suite 700, Washington, DC

The Aspen Institute Energy and Environment Program in partnership with Aspen Institute India, the Confederation of Indian Industry, World Resources Institute and the Center for American Progress invites you to a public panel discussion on Tuesday, February 14, 2012 at the Aspen Institute.

A strong strategic India-United States partnership on the policy and technical innovation pathways necessary to advance clean technology, energy access, adaptation strategies, and multilateral development on climate change following Durban presents a unique opportunity for diplomatic and economic gains on both sides. The moderated panel discussion will explore the future of the bilateral dialogue and collaboration between the two governments and non-state actors in both two countries.

Moderator: Manish Bapna, Interim President, World Resources Institute

Panelists:

Nitin Desai, Member, Prime Minister's Council on Climate Change, Government of India

Jamshyd Godrej, Chairman, Godrej & Boyce Ltd.

John Podesta, Chairman of the Board, Center for American Progress

Carl Pope, Executive Chairman, Sierra Club

Suresh Prabhu, Former Industry Minister, Environment Minister, and Union Minister for Power, Government of India
