

How to Endorse the Children's Bill of Rights in Sports

AS A GOVERNMENT:

1. Identify a Children's Rights in Sports lead. Who will champion endorsement and adoption of the Bill of Rights?
2. Determine the office(s) that will make the endorsement. This could be the mayor's office, city manager's office, city council, parks & recreation, youth and community services, etc.
3. Complete this form or reach out to Aspen Institute program manager Marty Fox at martin.fox@aspeninstitute.org to complete your endorsement.
4. Announce your endorsement through a signing ceremony, press release, or social media.
5. Activate your commitment by socializing the Bill of Rights with department executive teams and staff who intersect with youth and sports, as well as with youth sports providers who use public fields and facilities.

AS A HOST COMMITTEE:

1. Identify a Children's Rights in Sports lead. Who will champion endorsement and adoption of the Bill of Rights?
2. Socialize the Bill of Rights with host committee members to grow support for endorsement.
3. Complete this form or reach out to Aspen Institute program manager Marty Fox at martin.fox@aspeninstitute.org to complete your endorsement.
4. Announce your endorsement through a signing ceremony, press release, or social media.
5. Activate your commitment through committee member comms channels.